

GE Vernova US Import Documentation Checklist

Bill of Lading (BOL)

- Shipper is the seller (entity that sold the goods)
- Consignee is the buyer (GE Vernova legal entity)
- Notify Party is GE Vernova's designated Customs Broker
- Correct Delivery Address, Description of Goods, Port, and Vessel
- OTM Shipment ID (if applicable)
- Seal Number if containerized (may be listed on the BOL or Packing List)

Commercial Invoice- Must be in English

- Seller Full Name and Address (matches Shipper on BOL)
- Buyer/Importer Full Name and Address (GE Vernova Legal Entity)
- Purchase Order Number and Purchase Order Line Number
- GE Vernova Part Number, GEID Tag Number (serial number), and detailed part description
- Quantity and unit of measure
- Gross weight and net weight
- Net weight per part
- Unit value, total value, currency
- Terms of Sale/Incoterms
- Freight costs if included in Incoterm
- Country of Origin of each item (country of manufacture of products)
- Ship-To address/ Delivery location of the goods
- Steel country of melt and pour/Aluminum & Copper country of smelt and cast (if subject to Section 232 requirements)

- Weight of steel, aluminum, & copper content per part (if subject to Section 232 requirements)

Additional Required Documents

- Packing List (matches weights on Commercial Invoice)
- Delivery Note

Miscellaneous Documents

- Mill Certificate (certain steel/aluminum/copper products only)
- Supplier Declaration from Manufacturer (certain steel products only)
- TSCA Statement (certain chemical products only)
- Safety Data Sheet (SDS).
- Fumigation Certificate (certain products only)
- Lacey Act Declaration (certain wood/plant materials only)
- Certificate of Origin for USMCA or other Free Trade Agreement-eligible shipments

Courier/Parcel Shipments (FedEx, UPS, DHL)

All requirements above apply to courier/parcel shipments.

- Provide tracking number, commercial invoice, importer/consignee (GE Vernova legal entity name and address), and GE Vernova contact email to dedicated GE Vernova import team at courier to expedite Customs clearance.