5. Functions, duties and responsibilities of the Compliance Officer

The Compliance Officer, subject to the supervision of the Board of Directors shall be responsible for –

- (1) Setting forth policies, procedures, and ensuring its compliance, monitoring adherence to the Code and Regulations for the preservation of unpublished price sensitive information, approval of trading plan, pre-clearance of trades and monitoring of trades and implementation of this Code.
- (2) Maintaining the record of the Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel, Designated Persons and other connected persons and incorporate changes from time to time.
- (3) Assisting all employees in addressing any clarifications in the Regulations or this Code.
- (4) Advising all Designated Persons not to trade in securities of the Company when the Trading Window is closed.
- (5) Advising all Directors, Promoters, members of the promoter group, Key managerial personnel and Designated Persons to furnish the details of transactions in the securities of the Company as stated in clauses 10-12 in the prescribed form and to maintain a record of all the intimations received for a period of at least five years.

- (6) Obtaining disclosures from Promoters, members of the promoter group, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Designated Persons and to give information, in respect of the disclosures received, to all the Stock Exchanges where the securities are listed, as applicable.
- (7) Maintaining records of all disclosures as stated in clauses 10-13 of this Code and to report the same to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, on a half yearly basis.

6. Communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information

- (1) All information is to be handled on a "need to know" basis. It should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty.
- (2) No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a Company or securities, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- (3) Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password.
- (4) No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- (5) Notwithstanding anything contained above, an unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:-
 - (i) entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company;
 - (ii) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the sharing of such information being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.
- (6) For purposes of sub-clause (5) above, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of sub-clause (5) above, and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such unpublished price sensitive information in compliance with these regulations.
- (7) The Company shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the names of such persons or entities as the case may be with whom information is shared under this Code/

Regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such databases shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

7. Restriction on trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information

- (1) Save as provided in this Code and/or the Regulations, no insider shall trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.
- (2) Insiders shall maintain the confidentiality of all unpublished price sensitive information. Save as provided in this Code and/or the Regulations, they shall, while in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information, neither trade in the securities of the Company on the basis of unpublished price sensitive information nor pass on such information to any person directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for trading in securities of the Company.

Prevention of misuse of unpublished price sensitive information:

8. Trading Plans

- (1) An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
- (2) Such trading plan shall:-
 - (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
 - (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
 - (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
 - (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
- (3) The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek express undertakings that:
 - (i) the person is not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information; or
 - (ii) he would ensure that any unpublished price sensitive information in his possession becomes generally available before he commences his trades; or such other undertaking as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan. The Compliance Officer may thereafter approve the plan.

- (4) The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the compliance officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

- (5) Upon approval of the trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

9. Trading Window

- (1) Designated persons may execute trades subject to compliance with this Code and the Regulations. Towards this end, a notional trading window shall be used as an instrument of monitoring trading by the Designated Persons. The trading window shall be closed when the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates. Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed.
- (2) The notice of closure of Trading Window intimated to the Stock Exchanges, if any, wherever the securities of the Company are listed, by the Compliance Officer, shall be deemed as intimation to the Designated Persons / Insiders for adherence and compliance with this Code.
- (3) The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the Compliance Officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
- (4) The "Trading Window" shall, inter-alia, remain closed from:
 - (i) the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results.
 - (ii) the date of intimation, to the Stock Exchanges, of the date of Board Meeting/Committee Meeting for recommendation/declaration of dividend, until 48 hours after the said results/dividend detail is made generally available;
 - (iii) the actual date of Board Meeting/Committee Meeting until 48 hours after the decision is made generally available, wherein, decision is required to be taken on the following matters:
 - change in capital structure;
 - mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, delistings, disposals and expansion of business and such other transactions; and
 - changes in key managerial personnel;

- (5) Notwithstanding the above, the timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the compliance officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
- (6) Trading Window may be closed by the Company during such time in addition to the above period, as it may deem fit by the Compliance Officer.

10. Pre-clearance of Trades

- (1) When the trading window is open, trading by Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall be subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer, if the value of the proposed trades is above threshold limit. No Designated Person/their immediate relatives shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if they are in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed. However, pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.
- (2) Designated Persons / their immediate relatives intending to deal in the securities of the Company upto the threshold limit, as defined and provided hereinbefore, may do so without any pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer. In all other cases, they should pre-clear the transactions as per the pre-dealing procedure as provided hereinafter.
- (3) Designated Persons / their immediate relatives shall make an application in the prescribed Form I, to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that he/she intends to deal in, the details as to the depository(ies) with which he/she maintains a Demat/Trading account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by the Compliance Officer in this matter.
- (4) He / She shall execute an undertaking in favour of the Company, incorporating, therein, inter alia, the following clauses:
 - that he/she does not have any access or has not received Unpublished Price Sensitive Information upto the time of signing the undertaking;
 - that in case he/she has access to or receives Unpublished Price Sensitive Information after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his/her position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes generally available;
 - that he/she has not contravened any provisions of this Code and the Regulations;
 - that he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the said matter.
- (5) Designated Persons / their immediate relatives shall execute their transactions in respect of securities of the Company within seven (7) trading days after the approval of pre-clearance is given failing which the transaction has to be pre-cleared again. Reporting of trades executed or decisions not to trade shall be made/done in Form II. They shall not execute a contra trade during the six months following the prior transaction. In case of emergency the six months holding period may be waived by the Compliance Officer (application to be made in Form III) after recording in writing the reasons in this regard provided that such relaxation does not violate this Code/ Regulations. Trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with approved trading plan.

- (6) In case of the Compliance Officer intending to deal in the securities of the Company beyond the threshold limit, the pre-clearance of the Managing Director or in his absence, the Chairman of the Board, will have to be obtained. Similarly, in case of emergency Compliance Officer may obtain the waiver from the Managing Director or in his absence, the Chairman of the Board, provided that such relaxation does not violate this Code/ Regulations.
- (7) In case a contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.

However, this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.

Reporting Requirements

11. Initial Disclosures

- (1) Every promoter, member of the promoter group, key managerial personnel and director of the Company shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company as on the date of this Code taking effect, to the Company within thirty days of this Code taking effect in Form A;
